

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Monday Musicale of Aberdeen is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee with a public concert on October 16, 1983; and,

WHEREAS, Monday Musicale Club was organized in the winter season of 1908-09, and is now the oldest women's music club in Aberdeen; and,

WHEREAS, Music, the Universal Language, is one of the great arts and an outstanding feature of our culture; and,

WHEREAS, Monday Musicale was organized by 24 outstanding women, able performers and active in music in the community, and has continued this type of membership through the years to its present 40 members; and,

WHEREAS, Monday Musicale is a member of National Federated Music Clubs, the largest and most potent music organization in the world, launched in 1897; and is also a member of the South Dakota Federated Music Clubs, organized in 1922. National and State offices have been held by Monday Musicale members; and,

WHEREAS, Monday Musicale is always to the fore in bringing good music and culture to this Prairie City and area since its beginning, organizing and promoting mini-symphonies, choral groups, choirs, Handel's Messiah, Aberdeen's Community Orchestra, radio programs, auditions for Juveniles, student and Young Artist music contests; and,

WHEREAS, Monday Musicale's achievement in all fields of music has been outstanding from its beginning to the present day:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, in recognition of the outstanding contributions Monday Musicale has made to the cultural life in Aberdeen and its area, do hereby proclaim October 16, 1983, as

MONDAY MUSICALE DAY

In South Dakota, and congratulate this organization on its accomplishments.

ATTEST:

Alice Kundert
